He Who Comes is a man of few words and enigmatic presence. He is a wanderer, a seeker of justice, and a protector of the innocent. As he journeys through the West, he encounters a wide range of characters, each with their own unique motivations and desires.

There is the ruthless outlaw, Butch Cassidy, who terrorizes the frontier with his gang of outlaws. There is the brave and resourceful sheriff, Wyatt Earp, who fights to maintain law and order in a lawless land. And there is the beautiful and spirited schoolteacher, Sarah Jones, who brings hope and education to the isolated towns of the West.

As He Who Comes interacts with these characters, he becomes embroiled in a web of intrigue and danger. He must fight for his own survival, while also protecting those who are under his protection.
