Further afield lies Bag End, the legendary home of Bilbo and Frodo Baggins. Hidden within the hillside, its circular door and ivy-covered walls exude an air of mystery and adventure. As you approach the village green, you can almost hear the sound of laughter and the clinking of tankards as hobbits gather at The Green Dragon Inn.

Hobbits believe that rainbows bring good luck and lead to hidden treasures. They often chase after rainbows, hoping to catch a glimpse of their elusive pot of gold. But the true treasure of The Shire lies not in material possessions, but in the simple joys of life and the bonds of friendship.
