

Seoul Tour Guidebook - Recommended Tour Courses In Seoul

Seoul is a vibrant and dynamic city with a rich history and culture. There are many different tour courses available in Seoul, each offering a unique perspective on the city. This guidebook will provide you with recommendations for some of the best tour courses in Seoul, so that you can make the most of your visit to this amazing city.

1. The Gyeongbokgung Palace Tour

The Gyeongbokgung Palace is the largest and most impressive of the five grand palaces in Seoul. It was built in 1395 and served as the main palace of the Joseon Dynasty for over 500 years. The palace complex is vast and includes many different buildings, including the throne hall, the queen's quarters, and the royal gardens. A tour of the Gyeongbokgung Palace is a great way to learn about Korean history and culture.

2. The Changdeokgung Palace Tour

The Changdeokgung Palace is another one of the five grand palaces in Seoul. It was built in 1405 and served as the secondary palace of the Joseon Dynasty. The palace complex is smaller than Gyeongbokgung Palace, but it is more intimate and charming. The Changdeokgung Palace is also home to the Secret Garden, which is a beautiful garden that is not open to the public. A tour of the Changdeokgung Palace is a great way to experience the beauty and tranquility of traditional Korean architecture and gardens.

3. The N Seoul Tower Tour

The N Seoul Tower is a communications and observation tower located on Namsan Mountain in Seoul. It is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Seoul and offers stunning views of the city. The tower is 236 meters tall and has a revolving restaurant and展望台. A tour of the N Seoul Tower is a great way to get a bird's-eye view of Seoul and to experience the city's vibrant nightlife.

4. The DMZ Tour

The DMZ (Demilitarized Zone) is a buffer zone that separates North and South Korea. It is one of the most heavily militarized areas in the world. A tour of the DMZ is a great way to learn about the Korean War and the ongoing conflict between North and South Korea. Tours of the DMZ typically include a visit to the Joint Security Area (JSA), which is the only place where North and South Korean soldiers face each other directly. A tour of the DMZ is a sobering experience, but it is also a great way to learn about the history and politics of the Korean Peninsula.

5. The Korean Folk Village Tour

The Korean Folk Village is a living history museum that recreates traditional Korean life. The museum is located in Yongin, which is about an hour's drive from Seoul. The Korean Folk Village is a great place to learn about Korean culture and traditions. The museum has over 250 traditional houses and other buildings, as well as a variety of exhibits on Korean history, culture, and art. A tour of the Korean Folk Village is a great way to experience traditional Korean life and to learn about the country's rich history and culture.

These are just a few of the many different tour courses available in Seoul. Whether you are interested in history, culture, or nature, there is sure to be a tour course that is perfect for you. I encourage you to do some research and find a tour course that interests you. You are sure to have a memorable and enjoyable experience on your tour of Seoul.
